

1 don't say something that contradicts the idea we had 2 the other day, apparently that was adopted by the majority
3 of the Commission.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Gentry and Professor
5 Asper, if the Commission voted to follow your recommen-
6 dation and delete this section, did I understand that 7 you would follow Judge Adkins' suggestion and add a
8 phrase to Section 5 to make it clear that it applied only 9 to state elections?

10 MR. GENTRY: That is correct.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Would that then answer your 12 question?

13 MR. MILLER: I think it would, providing 14 we set up something on the positive side, Mr. Chairman, 15 to indicate that local elections could be arranged by 16 the local people, and if we don't say anything about 17 that, it might be presumed that we didn't want them to 18 do it.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Professor Asper, would it
20 be true that if there were nothing in the Constitution
21 as to the qualifications and other conditions for
