

1 is one or the other will suffice. However, there will 2 be no additional restrictions.

3 MR. MILES: That is my motion. That is 4 precisely what my motion was.

5 MR. HARGROVE: It wasn't stated in such a
6 way.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: I am not at all sure that this,
8 however, reaches the question that Professor Asper raised
9 and that is the Federal reservation. I would take it
10 that you do not mean by your motion, Mr. Miles, to say
11 that residence includes residence on a Federal reserva-
12 tion.

13 MR. MILES: No, I said municipalities, to 14 the contrary.

15 MR. HARGROVE: Mr. Chairman, these would 16 certainly be subject to any restrictions which are in 17 the Constitution, which is not the only one -- the only 18 one is not reservation. There is also mental incompetency, 19 and the conviction of a serious crime, which would, even 20 though you might be a resident and own property, which 21 would eliminate you as a voter, so I think all of this
