

1 population of voters necessary to put something to
2 referendum, we might not have a lot of use of it but the
3 use that would be made would be discretionary and be in
4 the public interest.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Anything further?

6 MR. MILLER: Mr. Chairman, might I ask a
7 question from these gentlemen, and I think I am in the
8 minority, but can anybody point out how many occasions
9 since 1914 when the referendum has accomplished anything
10 for the State of Maryland?

11 MR. SAYRE: Sure.

12 MR. CASE: When?

13 MR. SAYRE: On things that were voted on
14 by the public.

15 MR. CASE: Just name one. He has a very 16 good question. When you answer it, I will tell you when 17 it almost upset the state to the point where it could 18 have gone into financial chaos.

19 MR. SCANLAN: I want you to make that state-
20 ment.

21 DR. BARD: How about the Baltimore County
