

1 that.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Professor Burdette.

3 DR. BURDETTE: I was really about to suggest,
4 I wish we had more study and position from the 5 Commission. I am a little inclined to agree with Mr.
6 Case's point if he is right, that we get people -- if 7 we don't get a fait accompli before we can get 8 a referendum, that was his position with respect to the 9 illustration of the Bay Bridge, I think the idea is 10 all right, but I am not sure there aren't other cases
11 and I don't know I can think of them at this time. I
12 wonder if we can get a sentiment that we would not pre-
13 clude the Committee from looking into it if it wanted 14 to and bring it back. I am just saying that I tend 15 to lean toward the motion made, but I think there may 16 be some holes in it that the Committee could see and 17 ought to bring back to us.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Judge Adkins?

19 JUDGE ADKINS: I join with Dr. Burdette. I
20 am afraid of it but I can't say why. I can conceive of 21 certain regulatory matters or certain matters requiring
