

1 MR. SCANLAN: Yes, we do.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Has there been any thought as 3 to the amount to be recommended?

4 MR. SCANLAN: Not at this point, Mr. Eney.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: That would be a recommendation
6 of the Commission to come from your Committee at a later 7 date?

8 MR. SCANLAN: That is correct.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further questions? Any 10 further discussion? Ready for the question? Those in 11 favor signify by saying aye. Contrary no. Ayes have 12 it. So ordered. The Seventh Recommendation.

13 MR. SCANLAN: The Seventh Recommendation
14 deals with the election of delegates to the constitutional 15 convention. As you know, the convention, if it is 16 approved at the referendum, will begin September 12, 17 1967. Therefore, we have no real choice. There are 18 no primary or general elections scheduled to take place 19 in 1967, and therefore, we couldn't have election of 20 delegates conducted in conjunction with a primary or 21 general election.
