

1 provide; in the first part of Section 1, you have two
2 conditions that are not in the second, a statewide system
3 and free public schools, but in the second part of Sec-
4 tion 1, and in Section 2, you have the language, be pro-
5 vided, which would leave it open, it seems to me for the 6 argument to be made that the obligation of the General
7 Assembly was as great in the second clause of Section 1
8 and in Section 2 as it was in the first, which would mean
9 to provide a complete system of higher education.

10 Now, I am not suggesting that they shouldn't 11 be authorized to do so, but I want to know whether this 12 is deliberate and whether the Committee intends to impose 13 the same broad obligation on the Legislature to provide 14 other public educational institutions in the one case
15 and a system of higher education in the other, as you 16 impose on it with respect to the public schools in the 17 first clause.

18 MRS. FREEDLANDER: In answer to the Section 1, 19 the second section, Mr. Eney, we separate it from the first 20 because there are fees attached oftentimes to the second
21 section, and so they are not free, and they are not open
