

1 grow so enormously in the next few years that I would take 2 it you are saying that the General Assembly must provide 3 a system of colleges throughout the State of Maryland to 4 take care of.

5 MRS. FREEDLANDER: We don't say must or complete.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: You say, shall provide.

7 MRS. BOTHE: We say, system, but not how com-
8 prehensive it may be, how open to anybody or what it
9 should contain, merely there be a system of higher educa-
10 tion.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: My concern comes back to the 12 same thing, that the same words are used to impose the 13 duty to provide the free public schools as are used to impose
14 the duty to provide colleges. This worries me. Dr. Jen-15 kins?

16 DR. JENKINS: I fail to see how you read the 17 word, complete, in here. We do not have a complete system
18 of public school education. We don't have kindergartens,
19 we don't have nursery schools, as obligatory, and I don't 20 see how you can read Section 2, meaning it must be complete 21 to provide all aspects of higher education; if you are
