

1 have to shut off this debate in the next three minutes,
2 because we need at least fifteen minutes to discuss some 3 things we have got to discuss before we adjourn. I doubt 4 very much the way the discussion is going now that it could 5 be satisfactorily concluded in two or three minutes.

6 MR. CASE: May I make a statement?

7 THE CHAIRMAN: Go ahead.

8 MR. CASE: Well, I am prepared to speak in 9 defense of this particular provision for at least a half 10 an hour, if necessary. I am being a little facetious when 11 I say that, but I think this is an extremely important 12 provision, certainly to the people who are associated with 13 the University of Maryland, one which requires a great deal
14 of study in depth, and I think that the members of this 15 Commission certainly voting on it deserve to hear all sides 16 of the controversy. There are many, many points here which 17 should be made in connection with why President Elkins
18 thinks this is a very necessary provision in our State
19 Constitution.

20 It just seems to me the hour being what it is,
21 we are all, certainly I will speak for myself, suffering
