

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Any discussion now on the
2 amendment to Recommendation Five? Any further questions
3 about it? Ready for the question?

4 MR. MELVIN: I have one question, I don't 5 want to belabor it. I think it is probably fair to 6 state that the convention might adopt certain sections
7 piece-meal, various articles, at a time. Does this 8 motion contemplate that those separate articles require 9 a majority vote or just the completed document?

10 MR. SCANLAN: I think the final vote on the 11 document, whether done in one fell swoop or they 12 vote on the final legislative article on Monday, the 13 final judicial article on Tuesday, another final article
14 on Thursday, it is the final action whether they do it
15 in one piece or divide it up.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further question?

17 DR. BURDETTE: I hope your amendment would 18 be worded that way. I didn't catch whether it was when 19 read. I think you are quite right doing it that way.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Any further questions?

21 MR. CASE: I would point out if you do it
