

1 DR. BURDETTE: One senators?

2 MR. BROOKS: Each house district shall be
3 represented by at least one, but not more than six dele-
4 gates..

5 THE CHAIRMAN: The obvious solution to the 6 grammatical problem is to, of course, include the word,
7 senator, and the word, delegate, but let's not waste
8 debate on that, please. That goes to the Committee on 9 Style.

10 MR. SAYRE: Query.

11 THE CHAIRMAN: Go ahead.

12 MR. SAYRE: In determining that there shall 13 not be more than two, you decided that it was all right
14 to have as many as two rather than a single-member dis-
15 trict and in determining six, you felt that that was not 16 too large as far as a short ballot and the people's 17 knowledge of people's running. Do you have a criterion 18 by which to judge this?

19 DR. BARD: One of the standards that we used
20 was that of the present State Legislature, the one that 21 is being elected currently, though I think at present
