

1 held invalid, and suppose they are both held invalid in
2 one proceeding, would we go through the same cycle again?

3 THE CHAIRMAN: No, we are in the situation we
4 are today.

5 MR. CASE: The court could in the last analysis
6 adopt a plan.

7 MR. CLAGETT: Why don't we say that?

8 MR. CASE: And the fact that you start this off
9 by saying a valid plan shall be adopted within blank,
10 whatever period of time, will give the court, they will
11 know if they are up against a deadline, they have got to
12 adopt a plan.

13 MR. HAILE: They will go ahead and adopt it
14 within that period of time.

15 MR. MELVIN: Couldn't you say the court speci-
16 fically does have that authority?

17 MR. CASE: May have that authority.

18 MR. SCANLAN: Again, this would be subject to 19 original jurisdiction, just the one step?

20 MR. CASE: I don't have any great feeling on 21 that.
