

1 is that Mrs. Bothe was trying to get the concept, not of 2 particular days, but of tying it to the election in some 3 way, and I think you might want the principle, whether 4 you want it tied to an election or want it independent 5 of election.

6 MR. CASE: This is overriding; in principle,
7 as far as possible you want to get the plan in effect so
8 that it will be usable in the first available election,
9 whenever that may be. Now, it could well be that it
10 would come out differently in different years, and it
11 seems to me you could take one of these master calendars
12 and see how it would work out over a period of time. It
13 may be that you can reasonably accomplish it by starting 14 the time from the inception, as the Committee's recom-
15 mendation originally was, namely a period of time after 16 the promulgation of the official census, and then count 17 forward, or it may be more desirable to hook it to the 18 election and count back. I don't know. I think that is 19 something that will be awfully difficult.

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Mrs. Bothe, would you be willing 21 to accept the proposition that it be referred back to the
