

1 after the election, called the General Assembly into 2 session to enact some of the principal recommendations
3 of the Sherbow Commission Report, and that that particular 4 General Assembly was the old General Assembly. It was 5 not the one that came in in '47, when you took office,
6 Governor.

7 GOVERNOR LANE: That is my recollection, too,
8 but from a practical standpoint, this didn't make any 9 difference, because you have got to go to work to be 10 prepared, no matter when you take office, and that depends
11 upon the character, and the assistance that the incum-
12 bents in office provide for you. That is a matter of 13 character and disposition. So far that has worked well,
14 but we used the old crowd up to the date of their quali-
15 fication, which was the swearing in ^{of} the new Legislature
16 at the appropriate time. It was the old Legislature
17 that elected me when Governor O'Conor resigned.

18 THE CHAIRMAN: Maybe you were invalidly elected,
19 Governor.

20 GOVERNOR LANE: I can now raise that question.

21 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Della?
