

1 caliber of representation, and with not a very good
2 reputation for forward-looking legislation.

3 I just feel from some limited experience in the 4 Legislature that it should definitely be limited, because 5 if you don't have a timetable, and you don't have a schedule
6 of definite dates by which things are to be accomplished,
7 it is going to be chaos. I also feel that this cuts across 8 not only the Legislative Committee, it cuts across the 9 Executive Department and the fine subcommittees of this 10 Commission. As far as the Executive goes, how do we 11 set up, I mean how does the governor in relationship with 12 the Legislature, as far as finance, I am sure you can 13 speak to this, but how are you going to have a budget
14 adopted by the State if you don't have a safeguard? You 15 can debate the budget for twelve months.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: That doesn't necessarily follow,
17 Mr. Bond. You have a provision now that the budget must 18 be acted on within a certain time. I don't think what you 19 say necessarily follows.

20 MR. BOND: I am not the budget expert. I do
21 feel you would find difficulties. The effective date of
