

1 Boggs was a Republican and they kept Governor Boggs off
2 balance by just staying in session and coming back
3 every two weeks and passing another river bill, and it
4 was just an unthinkable thing. He was trying to get a
5 program through. It was a good program. I was doing
6 some work for the Public Service Commission, and the Pub-
7 lic Service Commission members never knew from one week
8 to the next whether they were still going to be in office, 9 because the Legislature could keep coming back and keep 10 passing bills. He would have to veto them. Then there 11 would be a big upsetting factor.

12 To me, this is not a theory. This was a fact
13 in Delaware, so I think from that standpoint, it is a 14 bad situation.

15 Now, the third argument that I have heard is 16 that if you give the Legislature unlimited period of 17 time, then it can get its job done. This is just so 18 much nonsense. The Legislature can get its job done if 19 it has got a period to do it. The business about Cooper-
20 Hughes and all that, I don't want to go into now, but I
21 can tell you, and people who really will be honest
