

1 this point, Mr. Case?

2 MR. CASE: I would like to ask a question,
3 Mr. Chairman. I don't know but what that word or what those 4 words now mean in the context of Colonel Miles propo-
5 sition.

6 MR. MILES: Nor do we at the end of the table.

7 MR. CASE: I would like an explanation from 8 the Chairman.

9 THE CHAIRMAN: I will try. I am not so sure I
10 can, but to the extent I understand the term, continuing 11 body, I don't think it is necessarily affected by the 12 vote, because the way the section was set up initially,
13 you provided that the General Assembly was a continuing
14 body, but its term was fixed by law. All we have done
15 now is to say that its term, the term of its sessions,
16 shall be fixed by the Constitution. The concept, as I
17 understood it from the Chairman, and he can correct me if 18 I am wrong, is that the continuance of the elected Legis-
19 lature as a continuing body, independent of its sittings,
20 its sessions, merely means that it is the same body. It 21 is not a new body every time it has a new session. I would
