

1 Chairman and reporter of that Commission present the 2 concept of the Judiciary Article to the Commission. I
3 am anxious that this be done, because there are many 4 members of the Commission who are not lawyers, who are 5 not familiar with the details of what has been worked out
6 in the Judiciary Article, and it is going to require a 7 great deal of thought. It is going to require a great 8 deal of careful study and attention, so that if we pos-
9 sibly can, I would like to conclude consideration of the 10 other reports, hopefully not later than 4 o'clock. I had 11 hoped we would have the whole afternoon on the Judiciary 12 Article, but that obviously is impossible, so if you will 13 keep that in mind, I do not mean to shut off debate, and 14 I think it would be unwise not to debate things fully. I
15 suggest only that we sharpen our comments and make them
16 as brief as the circumstances will permit.

17 I want also to ask you to be considering at 18 luncheon, and whenever you can in between, and this 19 afternoon, the problem with respect to the next meeting
20 because I don't want this to be considered casually, and I
21 have a tremendous respect for the will and the vigor with
