

1 overnight and again ought not to be in Baltimore City,
2 because it is too easy for too many of us not to stay
3 overnight. Dick Case suggested that, since the University
4 of Maryland now has Mount Ayratt Farms, and he tells me
5 there are probably ample accommodations there, and it
6 is a very pleasant place, that if we have -- Dick, you
7 can be more precise than I can, it is in Harford County.

8 MR. CASE: It is in Cecil County overlooking the 9 Susquehanna on what would be the East Bank of the Susque-
10 hanna. There are about forty rooms there. It is a small 11 house.

12 THE CHAIRMAN: Whether or not we can get it is 13 a detail we will leave out. I am suggesting that there
14 be such a place. It is also possible for us to meet
15 at College Park. That was one of the locations considered
16 this time, but we couldn't get the necessary conference
17 room readily available.

18 DR. BARD: Is that the Adult Center, Mr. Chair-
19 man?

20 THE CHAIRMAN: Yes.

21 DR. BARD: That is a very excellent place.
