

1 throughout the State.

2 In addition, many of the large employee
3 publications are either inserting in their pay envelopes
4 or in their employee publications reminders about the 5 necessity or desirability of voting in the referendum.
6 Many of the large employers are also including a reminder
7 either in the pay envelope next preceding the referendum
8 or as a separate piece of paper with the pay envelope.

9 I am told all of the major political candidates
10 have been contacted and are endorsing the referendum
11 and including endorsements on their sample ballots,
12 that the work of contacting every political candidate
13 is moving forward.

14 We had hoped, if you will recall the agenda or 15 targets we set up some months ago, to have the final 16 recommendations of each Committee submitted by this 17 meeting. We have not achieved that hope, but I think 18 we are in such position that we can anticipate having 19 recommendations from each Committee covering the entire 20 scope of its activities not later than the September 21 meeting. This would mean that for the first time we
