

1 would otherwise.

2 Unless there are other questions, we will
3 move ahead to consideration of reports and take up
4 first the Fifth Report of the Committee on Elective
5 Franchise. This is the report dealing with the article
6 on suffrage and elections and because it is not the first 7 report on that subject, the report does not contain 8 all of the sections of that article. You should have 9 separately a four-page document that contains the 10 text of the complete article in which the sections here-
11 tofore approved by the Commission are in Roman type and 12 the sections included for consideration today are in 13 italics. You should have both of those reports before
14 you. Does anyone not have either? One is the mimeographed
15 paper headed Fifth Report of the Committee on Elective
16 Franchise. The other is the Xerox paper headed Article
17 on Suffrage and Elections.

18 Mr. Gentry and Professor Asper, will you
19 present the report.

20 MR. GENTRY: The Fifth Report which embraces
21 the changes in the article on suffrage and elections, I
