

1 election from the general.

2 But on the other hand the county, local 3 county election is always held at the same time as the 4 general election for state-wide office.

5 With reference to Mr. Gentry's point, there
6 is a very decided difference in reasoning for the quali-
7 fication in the town as distinguished from the qualifica-
8 tion in the county. The reasoning is that in the town 9 you have certain affairs that are regulated by the 10 town council, involving very specific property rights 11 and ownerships of property, in which, particularly in 12 resort areas, where the owner of the property is a
13 registered voter of some other area. So he gets a chance 14 to vote for president, he gets a chance to vote for 15 his local areas, local officers, somewhere else.

16 A good example would be to my own knowledge
17 the Town of North Beach where there are a large number 18 of people from Fairfax County, Virginia, who live in 19 North Beach. North Beach at one time was putting in a 20 rather comprehensive and expensive sewer system and 21 these people wanted the right to vote because their land
