

1 fifths should be nonreferable.

2 MR. CASE: I think that I am guilty of this
3 crime on the Commission. I believe this is some point
4 that was made by me at Easton.

5 My recollection is that at the time I had in 6 mind that we would be talking about and were talking
7 about emergency legislation.

8 So that I think what we voted on there was 9 in effect that this would operate in the case of emergency
10 legislation passed by three-fifths. But further think-11 ing about it, just hearing Dale Adkins suggestions, leads 12 me to believe that really his point is more imaginary
13 than real because as a practical matter, you know pretty 14 well, as a matter of fact in my experience in Annapolis
15 I have never seen an act which is wending its way
16 through the General Assembly that wasn't pretty well 17 known because of its controversial nature that it would 18 or would not be subject to referendum petition. I think
19 once this rule is known by everybody, all Legislators
20 know that to get three-fifths vote that then the bill
21 is going to go into effect immediately. It seems to me
