

1 to meet that very point if there were enough people that
2 felt that way about it, enough Legislators who felt
3 that way about it.

4 THE CHAIRMAN: I think Professor Asper has
5 answered the comments I made very effectively. Any
6 further comments?

7 MR. SAYRE: Just a question here. When you
8 say that it shall stand, on the 30-day part, then such 9 law shall not take effect until 30 days after its 10 approval. Here we are writing an arbitrary 30 days.
11 I was wondering if unless as otherwise provided or 12 something like that, by the terms of the bill itself.

13 MR. CASE: The last clause?

14 THE CHAIRMAN: The sixth line.

15 MR. SAYRE: Just a matter of the arbitrariness
16 of 30 days.

17 THE CHAIRMAN: You would suggest words such 18 as for instance earlier than in place of until? In 19 the sixth line of the section.

20 MR. CASE: Mr. Chairman, I think that's what
21 the Constitution says now, 30-day period. I think you do
