

1 MR. BROOKS: One-half of the required number.

2 THE CHAIRMAN: Mr. Bond, Mr. Case made a
3 suggestion though not specific. Do you amend your
4 motion?

5 MR. BOND: I would rather let it go at half.

6 MR. CASE: I am not pushing 30 per cent.

7 THE CHAIRMAN: I understand that.

8 MR. CASE: I threw that out for consideration.

9 MR. BOND: I realize the increase from three 10 to five is a further curtailment. I think it is in 11 order. I don't feel that the 50 per cent of having 12 not more than 50 per cent from any one of the counties
13 in the future is too great a deterrent and getting the 14 referendum if it is a worthwhile referendum.

15 DR. BURDETTE: That would mean at least three
16 counties having substantial representation.

17 MR. CLAGETT: The referendum provided in the 18 event of change of boundaries where the affected
19 counties are three or less would be the area affected
20 where it involves the change of boundaries of three or 21 four, of more than three counties, I mean, it is felt
