

1 MR. CASE: I move that Section 1 be rewritten
2 to contain as far as possible the language of Section 6.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: Is there a second?

4 DR. BARD: I will second it but I want to 5 offer an amendment.

6 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Bard.

7 DR. BARD: I am interested in a counter-
8 motion which would seek to preserve the language not 9 just in Section 6 but in a large portion of the 10 Declaration of Rights when it seems appropriate.

11 MR. CASE: I would accept that amendment
12 gladly.

13 DR. BARD: This is the way I would like to 14 see the motion read rather than for any particular
15 section because I do think your main point from my point 16 of view is well taken.

17 MR. SCANLAN: Mr. Chairman, I agree with Dick's 18 main point. I don't concur in his criticism of the 19 workmanlike job that the Committee has done but I think 20 the language he has referred to in Section 6 plus some 21 other eloquent phrases found in the earlier part of the
