

Mr. Kimmel moved to suspend the rules, in order to take up the resolution in relation to hoisting the National Flag.

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE.

|                        |             |
|------------------------|-------------|
| Messrs. Bradley,       | Lynch,      |
| Duvall,                | Nuttle,     |
| Gardiner,              | Smith,      |
| Goldsborough, of Dor.; | Stone,      |
| Kimmel,                | Watkins—10. |

NEGATIVE.

|                            |             |
|----------------------------|-------------|
| Messrs. Brooke, President; | McKaig,     |
| Blackistone,               | Townsend,   |
| Franklin,                  | Whitaker—6. |

So the Senate refused to suspend the rules.

Mr. Kimmel submitted the following :

Ordered, That one thousand copies of the Journal of the Secret Session of the Senate be printed, for distribution by the Senators.

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.

|                 |          |
|-----------------|----------|
| Messrs. Kimmel, | Stone—3. |
| McKaig,         |          |

NEGATIVE.

|                            |              |
|----------------------------|--------------|
| Messrs. Brooke, President; | Lynch,       |
| Blackistone,               | Nuttle,      |
| Bradley,                   | Smith,       |
| Duvall,                    | Townsend,    |
| Franklin,                  | Watkins,     |
| Gardiner,                  | Whitaker—13. |
| Goldsborough, of Dor.;     |              |

So the Senate rejected the order.

Mr. Lynch offered the following :

Ordered, That two thousand extra copies of the resolutions which passed this body, appointing a Joint Committee to visit Washington, Montgomery, Richmond, and Harrisburg, be printed for the use of the Senate.

Mr. Gardiner offered as an amendment, "one thousand."

Which was adopted.
