

MONDAY, May 13th, 1861.

The message received from the House of Delegates, in regard to an adjournment on Wednesday 15th inst.,

Was taken up.

On motion of Mr. Lynch,

A call of the Senate was ordered, when the following Senators answered to their names :

Messrs. Blackstone, Duvall, Gardiner, Goldsborough, of Talbot, Heckart, Kimmel, Lynch, McKaig, Smith, Townsend, Watkins, Whitaker—12.

The Sergeant-at-Arms returned, and reported that he had notified the absent Senators that their attendance was required at the Senate Chamber.

Mr. Smith presented the following :

The memorial of thirty-five citizens of Cecil county, protesting against sending Commissioners to other States; against the call of a Convention; praying the adjournment of the Legislature, "sine die," and the repeal of the measures already made, and protesting against the so-called bills of ratification of the outrages lately committed in Baltimore city.

The remonstrance of J. J. McCullogh, and ninety-nine other citizens of Cecil county, against the passage of the bill, entitled, An act to provide for the Safety and Peace of the people of Maryland.

Mr. Goldsborough, of Talbot, presented

The memorial of J. J. Read, and sundry other citizens of Cecil county, respecting the actions of the Legislature in regard to certain measures pending before the same.

All of which were severally read, and,

On motion of Mr. Yellott,

Was referred to the Committee on the Constitution.
