

Frederick on the fourth day of June, 1861, at one o'clock,
P. M.

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE—NONE.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Brooke, President ;	Lynch,
Duvall,	McKaig,
Franklin,	Stone
Gardiner,	Townsend,
Goldsborough, of Talbot;	Watkins,
Goldsborough, of Dor.;	Whitaker,
Heckart,	Yellott—15.
Kimmel,

So the Senate rejected the resolution.

The question then recurred upon the message as submitted by Mr. Yellott.

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Brooke, President;	McKaig,
Franklin,	Watkins,
Gardiner,	Whitaker,
Heckart,	Yellott—9.
Lynch,

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Duvall,	Kimmel,
Goldsborough, of Talbot;	Stone,
Goldsborough, of Dor.;	Townsend—6.

Said message was read, adopted and sent to the House of Delegates.

The President appointed Messrs. Yellott, Goldsborough, of Dorchester, Townsend, and Duvall.

The Clerk of the House of Delegates returned the following:
Resolutions in regard to the furnishing Washington College with muskets.

Endorsed "passed by yeas and nays."

Also, delivered resolutions in regard to paying the Ministers who officiated in both Houses of the Legislature during the extra session.