

Mr. Stone moved to have five thousand copies printed.

Mr. Whitaker moved as an amendment:

Five hundred copies.

Mr. Watkins moved as an amendment to the amendment:

One hundred copies.

The question was then taken upon the original motion.

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Bradley,	Kimmel,
Grahame,	Stone—4.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Blackistone,	McKaig,
Duvall,	Nuttle,
Franklin,	Smith,
Goldsborough, of Talbot;	Watkins,
Heckart,	Whitaker—11.
Lynch,

So the Senate rejected the motion to print five thousand copies.

The question was then taken upon the amendment.

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follows :

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Bradley,	Kimmel,
Duvall,	Nuttle,
Grahame,	Smith,
Goldsborough, of Talbot,	Stone—8.

NEGATIVE.

Messrs. Blackistone,	McKaig,
Franklin,	Watkins,
Heckart,	Whitaker—7.
Lynch,

So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. McKaig moved to refer the message to the Committee on Judicial Proceedings.
