

than one dollar, to an amount greater than ten per centum of their capital actually paid in. Provided, That any Bank may issue such notes to the amount of five thousand dollars.

SECTION 3. And be it enacted, That the issue is not to continue beyond sixty days after the session of eighteen hundred and sixty-four.

SECTION 4. And be it enacted, That the provisions of this act is to extend only to such Banks and institutions as now possess the right of issue.

Which was read, and referred back to Messrs. Yellott, McKaig, Goldsborough, of Talbot, Whitaker, and Watkins.

Mr. Heckart, from the Committee on Militia, made the following

R E P O R T :

The committee to whom was referred the memorial of Henry Mortimore, and others, relating to aggressions by the Virginia soldiers, beg leave to report, that they are informed, that whatever acts of aggression may have taken place, were committed not only without the authority of the officers commanding the Virginia troops, but against their express orders.

The committee would, however, suggest that in the present disturbed state of affairs, aggression and lawless acts may be committed on the border, and to prevent this and preserve our citizens from lawless interference, recommend the adoption of the following resolution.

All which is respectfully submitted,

J. J. HECKART,
Chairman.

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Delegates, That ———, be and he is hereby appointed Commissioner to confer with the authorities of the State of Virginia, and have such measures adopted by that State as will protect the rights of our citizens, and preserve the peace on the Southern border of this State.

Which was read, and,

On motion,

Laid on the table.

Mr. Bradley submitted the following message :

BY THE SENATE,
May 1st, 1861.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates.

We have received your message, proposing a joint committee from each House to fix by Law the mileage of members of the