The following message was received from His Excellency, Governor Hicks, through the hands of Thos. J. Wilson, Esq.:

STATE OF MARYLAND,

EXECUTIVE CHAMBER,

FREDERICK CITY, June 19, 1861.

Gentlemen of the Senate:

I received yesterday an official copy of an order passed by your Honorable Body on the 8th instant, requesting me "to send to the Senate a list of all military and civil appointments made by me to any military or civil office, since the 10th day of March, 1860, and which, by the Constitution, require confirmation by the Senate."

In response thereto, I have to say, that the Constitution requires me to send Executive nominations to the Senate, for con-
