

Mr. Yellott submitted the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

April 26th, 1861.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We propose to appoint a joint committee to consist of five members of each House, for the purpose of considering what business is most important for early action, and recommending such measures as they may deem most necessary for our immediate consideration, and have appointed Messrs. Yellott, McKaig, Goldsborough, of Talbot, Watkins and Whitaker.

By order,

WM. KILGOUR,

Secretary.

Which was read, and sent to the House of Delegates :

On motion of Mr. Goldsborough, of Talbot,

Ordered, That Messrs. Goldsborough and Kimmel be a committee to wait upon the Clergy of this city, and ask that they officiate alternately every morning during the session of the Senate.

Mr. Kimmel, on the part of the joint committee, appointed to wait on the Governor, reported that they had called on His Excellency, and that he informed them, that he would make a communication to the Legislature on to-morrow at ten o'clock.

Mr. Kimmel submitted the following message:

BY THE SENATE,

April 26th, 1861.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

You will please return the message appointing a committee of five to prepare business for the session.

By order,

WM. KILGOUR,

Secretary.

Which was read, and laid on the table.

Mr. Yellott submitted the following order :

Ordered, That a committee of five be appointed to consider and recommend for the action of the Senate such business as they may think most necessary for their immediate consideration.