Said resolution was then returned to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Kimmel submitted the following memorials :

The memorial of E. S. Abbott, James F. Ross, Charles H. Keefer, David Boyd, Charles E. Trail, John T. Schley, and one hundred and sixty highly respectable citizens of Frederick county, respectfully protesting against the passage of a law, entitled "a Board of Public Safety," as a military despotism.

The memorial of J. McLieth, H. C. Steiner, and twenty-eight citizens of Frederick county, adverse to the law of "a Board of Public Safety."

The memorial of Wm. H. Derr, Jas. W. L. Carty and sixty-five others, against the passage of a bill creating "a Board of Public Safety," which they call a military despotism.

Which were severally read.

Mr. Bradley moved to lay them on the table.

The yeas and nays being demanded, appeared as follows :
