On motion of Mr. Blackistone,

Ordered, That the blank in the resolution to send a Commissioner to Delaware be filled with the name of Hon. John M. Robinson, of Queen Anne's county, Maryland.

Mr. Heckart, from the Committee on Militia, made the following

REPORT:

The committee to whom was referred the message from the Governor, under date of the 2d of May, 1861, accompanied by a remonstrance from sundry citizens of Washington and Frederick counties therein expressed, beg leave to make the following report:

Whereas, by a joint resolution adopted by this General Assembly of Maryland, appointing a Commissioner to attend to subject matter therein contained, we therefore ask to be excused from any further consideration of said reference.

All which is respectfully submitted,

J. J. HECKART,

Chairman.

On motion of Mr. Kimmel,
