Mr. Mackubin, from the committee on Claims, presented the following

REPORT:

In obedience to an order of the House of Delegates, at its January session, 1860, the committee on Claims have carefully examined the books and vouchers in the offices of the Treasurer and Comptroller for the years 1856, 1857, 1858, 1859, and from the 1st January, 1860, to the 14th February, of the same year, (the day on which Dr. D. Claude retired from the office of Treasurer) and report that they found the books and vouchers for the receipt and payment of money to correspond, and the books in both offices kept with a degree of neatness and accuracy highly creditable to the officers in charge.

RICHARD C. MACKUBIN,
T. W. LINTHICUM,
R. B. McCOY.
