

Parran,	Landing,	Eakle,
Compton,	Kessler,	Brining,
Ford,	Claggett,	Fiery,
Worthington,	Routzahn,	Griffith,
Quinlan,	Johnson,	Gordon,
Renshaw,	Salmon,	McCleary,
Jones, of Talbot,	Naill,	Roop,
Dennis, of Som'r,	Straughn,	Gorsuch,
Long,	Warfield,	Mills,
Stanford,	Winans,	Turner,
Holland,	Wallis,	Brown—51.

NEGATIVE.—None.

Mr. Compton, chairman of the committee on Military Affairs, presented the following

REPORT:

The committee on Military Affairs, to whom was referred the memorials of George E. Austin, and others; Richard H. Jackson, and others; asking that such action be taken by the Legislature as would require a certain Hooper C. Hicks to deliver up to the Captain of a cavalry company known as the Dorchester Dragoons, certain cavalry arms, the property of the State of Maryland, now in his possession, beg leave to submit the following report, and ask its adoption by the House:

WHEREAS, it appears to this House, that certain cavalry arms, the property of this State, are at present in the possession of a certain Hooper C. Hicks, of Dorchester county; and whereas, it appears further, that a cavalry company known as the Dorchester Dragoons, being uniformed, inspected and commissioned in conformity to the law of the State, and therefore entitled, upon the execution of a satisfactory bond, to receive at the hands of the Adjutant General their proportion; provided any such arms are in the armories of the State or at the disposal of the Adjutant General; therefore,

Ordered, That the Adjutant General be, and he is hereby required to report forthwith to this House, what number and kind of arms, (if any,) belonging to this State are now in the possession of or subject to the order of Hooper C. Hicks, of Dorchester county, and by what authority he holds the same.