

Mr. Briscoe proposed the following amendment:

In the first resolution strike out the word "instructed," and insert the words "earnestly desired and requested," pending the conderation of which the yeas and nays were ordered and appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs.

Kilbourn, Sp'r,	Bryan,	Harrison,
Durant,	Legg,	Thomas,
Morgan,	Starkey,	Wallis,
Rasin,	Landing,	Sangston,
Welch,	Kessler,	Morfit,
Briscoe,	Salmon,	Griffith,
Parran,	Goldsborough,	Gordon,
Compton,	Warfield,	Barnard,
Chaplain,	Brune,	Mills—29.
Holland,	Winans,

NEGATIVE,

Messrs.

Medders,	McIntire,	Scott,
Ford,	Maxwell,	Wilson,
Denison,	Miller,	Bayless,
Quinlan,	Wootten,	McCoy,
Renshaw,	Routzahn,	Brining,
Dennis, of Som't,	Johnson,	Fiery,
Stanford,	Naill,	McCleary,
Lawson,	Straughn,	Gorsuch—24.

So the amendment was adopted.

Mr. Thomas offered the following amendment:

In the first resolution, second line, strike out the word "Congress," and insert "Senate;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. Briscoe, proposed the following amendment:

In the second resolution strike out the words "and instructions;"

Which was adopted.

Mr. McCleary moved to lay the resolutions upon the table;

Which was rejected.