Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

Mr. Brune presented the following communication and accompanying paper from George Wm. Brown, mayor of the city of Baltimore:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, City Hall,
BALTIMORE, April 30, 1861.

To the Honorable,

the Senate and House of Delegates of the General Assembly of Maryland:

GENTLEMEN: I have the honor to communicate to you a copy of a Resolution adopted on the 29th inst, by the City Council of Baltimore, and I most respectfully ask for prompt and efficient action, on your part, to accomplish the very important object contemplated by the Resolution.

The entire trade and industrial pursuits of the city are suffering to a very great extent, and the whole community stand in need of speedy and efficient relief, which can only be obtained by a restoration of public confidence and the return of business to its accustomed channels, at the earliest moment possible.

With great respect,

your obedient servant,

GEO. WM. BROWN, Mayor.

BALTIMORE, April 30, 1861.

HON. GEO. WM. BROWN, Mayor:

DEAR SIR: I have the honor to communicate to you the following copy of a resolution, which was adopted by the City Council of Baltimore, on the 29th instant:
