

The question then recurred upon the motion, to strike out "Annapolis" and insert "Frederick."

The yeas and nays were ordered, and appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs.

Quinlan,	Bayless,	Gordon,
Lawson,	McCoy,	Barnard,
McIntire,	Eakle,	McCleary,
Kessler,	Brining,	Roop,
Salmon,	Fiery,	Turner—17.
Wilson,	Griffith,

NEGATIVE.

Messrs.

Kilbourn, Sp'r,	Linthicum,	Goldsborough,
Rasin,	Keene,	Warfield,
Welch,	Holland,	Brune,
Mackubin,	Maxwell,	Pitts,
Briscoe,	Wootton,	Harrison,
Parran,	Jones, of P. G.,	Thomas,
Ford,	Legg,	Wallis,
Denison,	Starkey,	Sangston,
Renshaw,	Landing,	Morfit,
Chaplain,	Claggett,	Scott,
Dennis, of Som't.	Johnson,	Brown—33.

So the amendment was rejected.

Mr. McCleary moved to strike out all after "the 17th of August, instant, 1861," and insert "sine die."

The yeas and nays being ordered, appeared as follow:

AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs.

Lawson,	Wilson,	Brining,
Keene,	Bayless,	Fiery,
McIntire,	McCoy,	McCleary,
Johnson,	Eakle,	Roop—13.
Salmon,

NEGATIVE.

Messrs.

Kilbourn, Sp'r,	Holland,	Pitts,
Rasin,	Maxwell,	Harrison,
Welch,	Wootton,	Thomas,