To the Honorable,

the Speaker of the House of Delegates of Maryland :

The Committee on Federal Relations, to whom was referred the communication of his Excellency, the Governor, enclosing a report of the proceedings of a meeting of the citizens of Weverton, in Frederick county, respectfully ask leave to report :

That they have inquired into the facts of the case, to which the said proceedings had reference, and find them to be substantially as follows :

A small number of the troops of the State of Virginia having reason to believe that considerable quantities of arms,
