

Chaplain, Long, Lawson, Maxwell, Miller, Bryan, Wootten, Jones, of Prince George's, Legg, Landing, Dennis, of Worcester, Routzhan, Johnson, Salmon, Naill, Straughn, Goldsborough, Warfield, Brune, Winans, Pitts, Harrison, Thomas, Wallis, Sangston, Morfit, Scott, Wilson, of Harford, Bayless, McCoy, Coudy, Eakle, Brining, Stake, Mills, Brown.

The proceedings of Saturday were read.

Mr. Ford presented the petition of Noah Worthington, of Thos., Gen. Hugh Ely, and 48 other citizens of the second election district of Baltimore county, against the passage of the bill—pending in the Senate—known as the Committee of Safety Bill;

Mr. Brown presented a petition of James S. Garrett, and 77 other citizens, on the same subject;

Mr. Routzahn presented the petition of Stephen R. Bowlus, and 362 other citizens of Middletown district, against the Board of Public Safety;

Mr. Naill presented the petition of sundry citizens of Double Pipe creek, in Frederick county in relation to the present condition of the affairs of the State;

Mr. Brune presented the petition of many residents of Baltimore city, praying the immediate re-building of the bridges recently destroyed upon the railroads leading to the city;

Mr. Bayless presented the petition of Elisha Lewis and seventy others, against the Safety Bill;

Also, the petition of J. T. Spicer and forty other citizens of Harford county, against the Safety Bill;

Mr. Stake presented the petition of a "majority of the voters" of Williamsport district, in Washington county, protesting against Secret Sessions, and praying a speedy adjournment after the passage of such laws of a general character as the business of the community imperilous demands; also, protesting against the passage of any law establishing Committees of Safety;

Which were severally read and referred to the Joint Special Committee of the House and Senate on reporting business for the Session.

Mr. Long presented the memorial of the Baltimore City Union Convention protesting against the passage of the bill, pending before the Senate of Maryland, providing for a Committee of Public Safety;

Which was read and referred to the same committee.

On motion of Mr. Pitts,

The House renewed the consideration of the bill entitled,