

Amendment proposed.

Strike out all after the word "sale" in the section, and insert the following "for twelve months from the passage of this act,"

Which was read and adopted,

Amendment proposed :

Provided, In all cases of a mortgage of personal property when there has been a decree for the sale of the same, or when there is a power of attorney for sale, contained in said mortgage, the mortgagor to entitle himself to the stay under this act, shall give bond to the mortgagee in a penalty and with security to be prescribed and approved by the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county where the mortgage is recorded, or by the Clerk of the Circuit Court or of the Superior Court of the city of Baltimore, if the mortgage is recorded in said city, with condition that he will surrender and deliver up to the said mortgagee, or any trustee appointed to sell the same, the said personal property so mortgaged in as good condition as the same was at the passage of this act ;

Which was read.

Mr. Wallis proposed the following proviso as an amendment :

And provided further, that nothing in this act shall be construed to affect the lien of judgments rendered, or to be rendered, or to prevent the prosecutions of attachments on warrant or judgment against the lands, goods and credits of non-residents, as under existing laws ;

Which was adopted.

The provision as amended was then adopted.

Amendment proposed by the committee as section third :

And be it enacted, That if any person or persons, by reason of this act, shall refuse and neglect to pay any interest or taxes which may be due upon any mortgage, such person or persons shall pay interest upon said interest from the time when said interest became due.

Mr. Wallis proposed the following substitute :

That this act shall not be held to apply to decrees or judgments for the payment of interest or taxes, as between parties to mortgages, judgments, or other contracts, upon which said interest or taxes are payable at a specified time, or times.
