Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following message:

BY THE SENATE,
May 7th, 1861.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We hereby transmit to your honorable body, a copy of the resolutions of a public meeting, held in Annapolis, on the 3rd instant, subject to your disposal.

By order,
WM. KILGOUR,
Secretary.

The resolutions, opposing the passage of the Public Safety bill, were read and referred to the committee on Federal Relations.

Also, the following :

BY THE SENATE,
May 7th, 1861.

Gentlemen of the House of Delegates :

We propose, with your concurrence, to appoint a joint committee, consisting of four members of each body, to confer in regard to the adjournment of the Legislature, and have appointed Messrs. Dashiell, Townsend, Yellott and Smith, on the part of the Senate.

By order,
WILLIAM KILGOUR,
Secretary.

Which was read and concurred in.

Mr. Kessler proposed the following :
