

Said bill was then sent to the Senate.

The Secretary of the Senate delivered the following bill :

An act to authorize the County Commissioners for Frederick county to build a new Court House for Frederick county, to borrow money on the credit of the county, to issue bonds for the payment of the same, and to levy taxes on the assessable property of the county, to redeem said bonds at maturity, and to pay the interest thereon ;

Which was read the first time, and referred to the Frederick County Delegation.

Also returned the bill entitled, an act to relieve the Mayor and Board of Police of the city of Baltimore, and all persons who acted under the orders of the Mayor or of the Board of Police of Baltimore city, in their efforts to maintain peace and good order and prevent further strife, on and after the occurrences of the 19th of April, 1861, in said city, from prosecution for or in consequence of their acts of obedience to said orders ;

Endorsed, "passed by yeas and nays."

On motion of Mr. Morgan,

The House took up for consideration, the order of the day, being the bill entitled, an act appropriating a sum of money to pay Samuel J. Pentz, (owner of the steamer Pioneer) William H. Hamilton, John Bird, J. C. Bush, James Cook, Wm. Lynch, John Bradshaw, E. S. Thomas and Edwin Street.

Said bill being upon its second reading, the question recurring upon the amendment proposed by Mr. Worthington, to strike out the word "six" in the fourth line and insert "three,"

When Mr. Worthington withdrew the proposed amendment.

Mr. Parran proposed the following amendment :

Strike out the word "six" in the fourth line and insert "three hundred and fifty."

Pending the consideration of which,

The yeas and nays were ordered, and appeared as follow :

AFFIRMATIVE.
