Great JOY to the Nation!
A PRINCE OF WALES is Born.
GOD Save the KING.

St. James's, August 12, 1762.

THIS MORNING, at half an Hour after VII, the Queen was happily Delivered of a PRINCE. Her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, several Lords of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and the Ladies of her Majesty's Bedchamber, being Present. This great and important News was immediately made known to the Town by the firing of the Tower Guns; and the Privy

PETERSBURGH, July 20.

THE Senate assembled Yesterday, and after solemn Deliberation, it was determined that Peter the Third should be deposed. Count Rofanowky, late Commander in Chief of the Cossacks, Count Pavin, Governor of the Great Duke, Son to Peter the Third, and Field Marshal Bouterlin, undertook to execute the Resolution of the Senate: In Consequence whereof Count Rofanowky went to the Castle of Oranjoburg, and there seized upon the Emperor. Prince of Moldavia, and there seized upon the Emperor. Prince of Georgia, upon the first Alarm, made some Resistance at the Head of his Regiment, but on his receiving a violent Wound on the Head with a Sabre, he was taken Prisoner.

July 21. The principal Circumstances that attended the late extraordinary Revolution are as follow: The Emperor had been for several Days at his Country Seat at Oranjoburg, and the Empress at another, called Peterhoff. On the 9th Instant, at six in the Morning, the Empress arrived in this City, and immediately repaired to the Palace; where, after assembling the Guards, she desired them to support her; and they accordingly proclaimed her Empress of all the Russias, at the same Time declaring the Emperor, Peter the Third, to be deposed. After this Proclamation was made, during which Time the Courts of the City were kept shut, the new Sovereign went to the Church of Kasaniky, where, after Divine Service, all the Grandees of the Empire took the Oath of Fidelity to her; to whom she declared, that she had taken the Oath of Allegiance purely for the good of the Country. At the Beginning of these Ceremonies, in order to prevent Disturbance, her Imperial Majesty thought proper to secure the Person of Prince George of Moldavia. Other necessary Precautions being taken, the Empress, dressed in the Uniform of the Guards, and wearing a blue Ribbon, mounted her Horse, and put herself at the Head of 10,000 Men, and marched to Oranjoburg, but the Emperor was not there. That Prince was come to Peterhoff

Peter in the Mountain of Bohemia, was about 3000 Men in Killed, Disarmed and Prisoners. The latter amount to upwards of 1000, and amongst them are 13 Officers. We have also taken 14 Pieces of Cannon. Our Loss, when it is considered that the Enemy had the Advantage of Ground, and our Troops had the most difficult Pass to get through, may be reckoned inconceivable; it does not amount to 600 Men, including the Killed, Wounded, and Missing.

Petersburgh, July 7. O. S. This Day a Declaration was published here by the Empress, giving an Account of the Death of the late Emperor Peter the Third.

LONDON, Aug 7.

Wednesday a Cargo Ship arrived at Portsmouth, with the Garrison of St. John's in Newfoundland on board.

Letters from Bordeaux, by Yesterday's Flanders Mail, advise, that several Ships which were in the Harbour are to be taken up for Transports, to carry a Number of Troops for Newfoundland, a great Part of which were already embarked. They are to be conveyed by three Men of War.

By a Letter from a Gentleman at Oporto, which came by Yesterday's Lisbon Mail, we are informed that every Thing was very quiet there; and since the Arrival of our Troops at that Place, all Fear of the Spaniards were entirely subsided.

Aug 10. Letters from France by the Flanders Mail, mention, that the Transports, with French Troops for Newfoundland, got out of Bordeaux the 28th ult. but being chased by some of our Men of War, were obliged to put back.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, Aug 8. On Monday his Majesty's Ship Boston, Superb, Storehouse and Minors, sailed from Spithead to Newfoundland, to intercept the French Ships coming Home from the West-Indies.

The Maryland Packet, from Virginia, is arrived in the River. She was a missing Ship.
