

INDEX

- Answer (1730), No. 65; Lower House Address and Governor's Answer (1730), No. 66; Governor's Speech (1732), No. 79; A Collection of the Governor's Several Speeches (1739), No. 94; Upper House Address and Governor's Answer, No. 96; Council Proceedings (1739), No. 100; Governor's Speech (1740), No. 101; Report of Committee on the Fund Raised by Three Pence per Hogshead (1742), No. 108; Charter, No. 152; Upper House Address and Governor's Answer (1752), No. 158; Same (1752), No. 164; Militia Bill (1756), No. 192; Supply Bill (1757), No. 206; "Three Bills" (Naturalization and two Supply Bills, 1760), No. 221; Governor's Proclamation regarding Boston fire sufferers (1760), No. 222; Form for prorogation of Assembly, No. 223; Council Proceedings (1761), No. 228; Lower House Address and Governor's Answer (1761), No. 229; Upper House Address and Governor's Answer (1761), No. 230; Supply Bill (1762), No. 239; Proclamation (1763), No. 245; Council Proceedings (1756-1764), No. 266; Proceedings of Committee on the "Good Intent" (1770), No. 299; Bill for redressing Evils Arising from Variation of Compass (1771), No. 304; Proceedings on Conference (1771), No. 305; Governor's Proclamation (1771), No. 307; Constitution and Declaration of Rights (1776), Nos. 373-376.
- Maryland, Compiled Laws of, first compilation proposed (1696), 17; printed (1700), 23; corrections in, printed, 24; unique copy of, discussed, 24-27, and described, No. 7; second compilation printed (1707), 28-29; discussed, 29-33; unique copy described 31n, and No. 17; third compilation printed (Philadelphia, 1718), 41-43; described, 42, 43, and No. 23; fourth compilation printed (London, 1723), 45-46; described, No. 31; fifth compilation printed (1727), 63; described, No. 38; sixth compilation printed (1765), 95-110; described, No. 254; Collection of all Laws Relating to Inspection of Tobacco (1747-1750), No. 153; Bisset's Abridgement (1759), 102, 103, 103n; described, No. 215.
- Maryland, Council of, Proceedings (1740), No. 100.
- Maryland Diocesan Library, Baltimore, 63.
- Maryland Gazette* (1st), 63; heading reproduced, 69; established by Parks (1727), 69; description, 70; heading compared to that of the Ludlow Post-Man, 74n; entered in bibliography, Nos. 41, 47, 55, 68, 74, 81, 85, 87; second Maryland Gazette, established by Jonas Green (1745), 80; 82-85; published by Green & Rind, 85-87; continued by Anne Catharine Green, 90; continued by her sons and grandson until 1839, 91, 93; lapses and resumes, 117-118; in bibliography see entries under every year from 1745 to 1776.
- Maryland Gazette and Annapolis Advertiser*, published by James Hayes, Jr., 117.
- The Maryland Gazette and Baltimore General Advertiser*, published by James Hayes, Jr., 117.
- Maryland Historical Society*, 22, 60n, 73n.
- Maryland Journal and Baltimore Advertiser*, 116, 127; announcement and first issue of (1773), 128; Mary K. Goddard assumes control of, (1774), 129; William Goddard resumes control (1784), 141; published by Goddard and Langworthy, 141; by Goddard and Angell, 142; Nos. 321, 334, 362a, 382a.
- The Maryland Muse*, by Ebenezer Cooke, title-page of, reproduced, 66; 67, 68, 68n; No. 70.
- Maryland, Printing in, fabled Jesuit press, 147-149; establishment of first press, 3; regulation of, by Council, 8-9; extent and character of, in 17th century, 11; second press and its probable activities, 12-14; evidence for press in Maryland, in 17th century, 15-16; third press, the Bladen-Reading press proposed and established, 18, 19, 21; its imprints, 21-26; fourth press, the Reading press conducted alone by Thomas Reading, 27-37; printing of Province