

INDEX

- Non-importation agreement, Nos. 289, 290, 324, 325, 328.
- Nothead see Nuthead.
- Now ready for the Press*, No. 339.
- Nulhead, see Nuthead.
- Nuthead, Dinah, possession of press, 9; administratrix of William, 10; probable establishment of press at Annapolis, 12; petition for license to print and her bond for good behavior as printer, 13; possible imprints, 14; second marriage, 14; third marriage, 15; character and services of, 15; mentioned, 18.
- Nuthead, Susan, or Susannah, 14, 15n.
- Nuthead, William, 2-16; first employment as printer in Maryland, 3-4; land surveyed for, 4; spelling of name, 4n; first imprint recorded, 4; first imprint extant, (Plate I), 6-8; deposition concerning illegal printing of warrants and action of Council, 8-9; signing of St. Mary's "Remonstrance," 9; death and inventory of estate, 10-11; equipment, 11; summary of services, 15-16; mentioned 58, 72.
- Nuthead, William, Jr., 14.
- "Nutheads Choice," 4.
- Nutthead, see Nuthead.
- Oely see Oley.
- Ogle, Samuel, Governor of Maryland, 72.
- Oley, Dinah (Nuthead) (Devoran), 15n.
- Oley, Margaret, 15n.
- Oley, Sebastian, 15, 15n.
- Opdike, C.W., The Op Dyck Genealogy, cited, 120n.
- Oswald, Col. Eleazar, 137, 137n, 138, 139, 139n, 140, 141.
- Paltsits, V.H., "John Holt, Printer and Postmaster," cited, 120, 122n, 129n, 138n.
- Papermaking in Maryland, 138.
- Paper Mill, established by William Parks, at Williamsburg, 72-73; sale of, 73n.
- Papers of George Washington*, cited, 141n.
- Papers of the Continental Congress*, cited, 133n, 134n, 145n.
- "Park Hall," Carroll County, Maryland, 60n; in Prince George's County, Maryland, 60n, 74n; at Oswestry, England, 74n; at Bitterley, England, 74n.
- Parker, James, printer, 120, 121, 122, 129; "Letters of, to Benjamin Franklin," cited, 129n.
- Parks, Eleanor, wife of William Parks, 60, 74n.
- Parks, Eleanor, daughter of William Parks, 60.
- Parks, William, 2, 16, 33, 55, 58; 59-74; brought to Maryland by Thomas Borden, 59; origin, 59, 73-74n; descendants, 60; will and inventory, 60n, 73; "Park Hall," Maryland, 60; law of 1727 for his encouragement, 60, 149-150; proposals to Assembly, 60-61; discord between the Houses as to his title and as to what he should print, 61-62; prints compiled laws of 1727, known as "the old Body of Laws," 63; inaugurates a literary tradition in Maryland, 63-69; founds the Maryland Gazette, first newspaper South of Pennsylvania, 69-70; his partner and assistants, 70n; neglects part of duties and is admonished by act of Assembly (1737), 71; removes to Virginia, 71; long and honorable service in Williamsburg, 72-73; builds in Williamsburg first paper mill south of Pennsylvania, 72; salary in Maryland and Virginia, 71n, 72; death (1750), 73; discussion of identity with William Parks, printer of Ludlow, Hereford and Reading, England, 73-74n; mentioned, 75, 76, 80.
- The Partnership*, by William Goddard, cited, 121n, 122n, 123, 123n, 124, 126, 126n.
- Peabody Library of Baltimore, 31n.
- "Peggy Stewart" (brig), No. 323.
- Penn, William, Printing disapproved by, 2n.
- The Pennsylvania Chronicle and Universal Advertiser*, Philadelphia, first issue of, 124; sketch of, 125-127; failure of, 127.
- Pennsylvania, Delaware and Virginia Almanac and Ephemeris*, edited by William Goddard (1784), 141.
- Pennsylvania Gazette*, motto used on, 123n.
- Pennsylvania Packet*, 116.
- Pennsylvania, Printing in, 2n, 12, 39.