THE MOUSE-TRAP,

OR THE Battle of the CAMBRIANS and MICE.

APOEM.
Translated into ENGLISH,

By R. LEWIS.

— Men merciless of Heart,
Inventive of new Mischief's, have with Art
A WOODEN ENGINE built, A TRAP for MICE,
Full of Destruction is the dire Device.

— Homer's Battle of the Frogs and Mice.

'Tis true, Composing is the nobler Part,
But good Translation is no easy Art:
For the Materials have long since been found,
Yet toib your Judgement and your Hands are bound.

Refcom. Eff. Transl. Verbs.
