

56.

(c) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, a retired judge eligible for benefits under this subtitle may accept employment in which all or part of the compensation for the employment comes from municipal, county, [State, or federal] OR STATE funds, if he immediately notifies the board of trustees of the Employees' Retirement System of his intention to accept the employment and specifies the compensation to be received for the employment. The annual retirement allowance receivable by the former judge plus the annual compensation for the position may not exceed in amount the compensation upon which the retirement allowance is based. During any period in which the total of the annual retirement allowance and the annual compensation for the position in fact exceeds the compensation upon which the retirement allowance is based, the retirement allowance shall be reduced by that amount necessary to bring the former judge's total compensation within the limit specified in this subsection. If a retired judge accepts employment in accordance with this subsection and is subsequently awarded retirement benefits as a result of that employment, his retirement benefits under this subtitle shall be reduced in the amount of the retirement benefits resulting from the subsequent employment.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall be construed prospectively only and shall apply to a retired judge who is eligible for benefits under Article 73B of the Code and is employed or continues to be employed by the federal government on or after July 1, 1990.

~~SECTION 2. 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1990 and shall be applicable to all judges who retire on or after July 1, 1990.~~

Approved May 29, 1990.
