(a) If a Natural Resources police officer or any law enforcement officer has probable cause to believe that any species of wildlife or any device is possessed in violation of this title, and it is not possible or feasible to secure a search warrant in time to seize the bird, mammal, amphibian, or reptile or the device, then [he] THE NATURAL RESOURCES POLICE OFFICER may examine any boat, railway car, box, crate, package, or game bag without a warrant.

(b) In this event, a Natural Resources police officer, in uniform or accompanied by a uniformed police officer, may stop and search an automobile, any vehicle, or trailer for the purpose of examining the game bags. [He] THE NATURAL RESOURCES POLICE OFFICER also may determine whether the person has an appropriate license.

10-1105.

A Natural Resources police officer or any law enforcement officer, upon arresting any person for violating any provision of this title or any [rule or] regulation [promulgated] ADOPTED pursuant to [it] THIS TITLE, may seize every bird, mammal, reptile, and amphibian unlawfully caught, sold, offered for sale, transported, or possessed. The Department may dispose of any seized species of wildlife at [its] THE DEPARTMENT'S discretion.

10-1106.

(a) A Natural Resources police officer or any law enforcement officer, upon arresting any person for violating any provision of this title or any [rule or] regulation [promulgated] ADOPTED pursuant to [it] THIS TITLE, may seize any device, equipment, conveyance, or property unlawfully used. If the owner or person in charge of the seized device, equipment, conveyance, or property is convicted, the court may declare the device, equipment, conveyance, or property forfeited, in addition to any other penalty provided in this title. Any forfeiture becomes the property of the Department for disposition at [its] THE DEPARTMENT'S discretion. If the owner is not known, the court may proceed ex parte to hear and determine any question of forfeiture. If the owner or person charged with the violation is not convicted, the device, equipment, conveyance, or property seized shall be released and returned to [him] THE OWNER OR PERSON.

(b) The Department [shall], by regulation, SHALL establish a schedule of resource values for individual species or describe a system that a court may use in determining the resource value for the species. The Department may use, but not be
